

RASCHKE VON KNOBELSDORFF HEISER advises the Argo Group on its corporate restructuring and on the subsequent financing by Rantum Capital

11 May 2016

RASCHKE VON KNOBELSDORFF HEISER (RKH) advised the Argo Group on an internal group restructuring regarding the buyout of one of the founders and on its corporate restructuring as well as on the financing through a credit fund set up by Rantum Capital.

The Argo Group, headquartered in Hamburg, is a personnel service provider with over 3.000 employees, active in 47 locations at home and abroad, that offers solutions in the area of personnel placement, temporary employment, recruitment process outsourcing and onsite management (www.argo-personal.de).

Rantum Capital is an asset manager being independent of banks and with a focus on corporate debt financing for small to medium-sized companies in Germany. The financing was accomplished through an institutional credit fund “Rantum Capital Private Debt Fund I” which has been set up by Rantum Capital in summer 2015 with an initial volume of EUR 100 million.

The Argo Group was advised by a RKH-team consisting of RKH-Partner Dr. Kristian J. Heiser (Lead, Corporate/M&A), Prof. Dr. Christian Möller (Of Counsel, Tax) and the Associates Tobias Prang, Carolin Wagner and Rebekka Schensny.

Rantum Capital was advised by an Ashurst-team led by Anne Grewlich (Partner) and the Counsel Dr. Oliver K. Hahnelt. A retiring partner of the Argo Group was advised by Bird & Bird (Dr. Ole Brühl (Lead), Dr. Dirk Barcaba, Elie Kaufmann (all Corporate/M&A), Gerrit Wiedow, Gertrud Romeis (both labour law)).

Background

RASCHKE VON KNOBELSDORFF HEISER (RKH) is a Partnership of Lawyers with eleven Attorneys-of-law. The law firm was established in 2005 by a spin-off from Freshfields Bruckhaus Deriger and is today one of the leading corporate/M&A-boutiques in Germany. Focusing on high-end legal services the law firm concentrates on advising German and foreign clients in complex corporate matters, corporate transactions and corporate litigation. The firm's clients include well-known family-owned companies, German and international industrial and commercial groups, real estate companies, private equity firms as well as banks and other financial service providers.

RKH-Partner Dr. Kristian J. Heiser has repeatedly advised the Argo Group on subjects of corporate law in the past.

Contact

Dr. Kristian J. Heiser
Partner, lawyer
Tel.: +49 40 866 433 44
heiser@rkh-law.de