

RASCHKE VON KNOBELSDORFF HEISER has advised the Christophorus Group on the sale of its out- and in-patient nursing facilities in North Rhine-Westphalia

6 December 2017

RASCHKE VON KNOBELSDORFF HEISER (RKH) advised the Christophorus Group on the sale of its residential and care centres, day-care facilities, assisted living facilities and out-patient services to the Charleston Group.

The Christophorus Group was founded 1992 and operates six in-patient residential and care centres with a total sum of 711 care places, 29 residential units, two out-patient services and one intensive care service in North Rhine-Westphalia. With its facilities in Gladbeck, Welver, Paderborn and Gütersloh, as well as two facilities in the Sauerland, the Christophorus Group ranks among the established and well-known operators in the eastern North Rhine-Westphalia. The company currently employs more than 700 people.

Charleston operates 38 residential and nursing centres with approx. 3.000 care places, four day-cares, 136 assisted living places and three out-patient care services in Germany. In total, Charleston employs approx. 2.400 people.

The Christophorus Group was advised by RKH-Partner Dr Kristian J. Heiser (lead, Corporate/M&A, Real Estate) as well as the associates Dr Robi Chattopadhyay and Carolin Wagner (both Corporate/M&A, Real Estate) and Prof Dr Christian Möller and Dr Morten Dibbert (both Tax).

Charleston was advised by Pöllath + Partners, Munich, (Jens Hörmann, M&A, Private Equity, click here for the press release) as well as by Meincke Bienmüller, Berlin, (Klaus Bienmüller and Dr Benedikt Hartl, both Real Estate).
