Raschke von Knobelsdorff Heiser (RKH) comprehensively advised the founders and existing shareholders of the gaming start-up MegaDev GmbH on a Series A financing round and the entry of Stuttgart-based early-growth investment company Engelhardt Kaupp Kiefer & Co.

MegaDeV GmbH has closed its Series A financing round with EUR 1.6 million. The lead investor is the Stuttgart-based early-growth investment company Engelhardt Kaupp Kiefer & Co. which is participating in the young company together with the existing investors and, among others, the CEO of Ritter Sport Andreas Ronken. MegaDev is thus further developing its all-in-one PC gaming assistant "Plitch".

Plitch is a tool that enables the application of specific cheat codes in numerous single-player games. 2621 titles are currently listed on the website, including "Assassin's Creed Valhalla", "Cyberpunk 2077" and "Hitman 3".

The founders and existing shareholders of MegaDev were legally advised by RKH partner Dr. Dominik Ziegenhahn (M&A/Private Equity/Venture Capital).
