

RKH advises the majority shareholder of Rohrsanierung Jensen on the acquisition by Hannover Finanz

7 November 2025

Raschke von Knobelsdorff Heiser (RKH) advised the majority shareholder of Rohrsanierung Jensen GmbH & Co. KG ("Rohrsanierung Jensen"), a leading infrastructure service provider in the field of trenchless pipe and sewer rehabilitation, on the acquisition by HF Equity (HFE) – a division of Hannover Finanz. The completion of the transaction is subject to approval by the Federal Cartel Office.

Hannover Finanz sees great potential for further growth and structural consolidation in the sewer rehabilitation market. The segment is considered attractive for a buy-and-build approach. As part of its strategic partnership with Rohrsanierung Jensen, Hannover Finanz intends to continue the company's successful path and specifically strengthen adjacent market segments and supra-regional growth. Company founder and majority shareholder Stefan Jensen will remain with the company as CEO and co-shareholder.

Founded in 2010, Rohrsanierung Jensen is specialised in the rehabilitation of sewage infrastructure and currently employs 110 people. The company stands for highest quality and customer satisfaction. Thanks to its strong innovative power, Rohrsanierung Jensen has established itself as the specialist for complex underground infrastructure construction projects and has become the market leader for trenchless sewer rehabilitation in northern Germany.

The majority shareholder has been advised by RKH partners Dr. Dominik Ziegenhahn and Maximilian Neeb (both Corporate/M&A), Of Counsel Prof. Dr. Christian Möller (Tax) und Senior Associate Philipp von Kageneck (Corporate/M&A). Für IT/data protection matters KNPZ partner Dr. Kai-Uwe Plath and for merger controll matters COMMEO partner Dr. Johanna Kübler have been involved. Hannover Finanz has been advised by a team led by CMS partner um Klaus Jäger (Corporate/M&A).
